AR 4100 Graduation Requirements for Degrees and Certificates

Reference(s):

Title 5 Sections 55060 et seq.

Rancho Santiago Community College District shall offer Bachelors in Science (Santa Ana College), Associate in Arts or Associate in Science, Certificates of Proficiency and Achievement. Specific course requirements for all degrees and certificates are found in the College Catalog.

Requirements to earn a degree:

- A student must demonstrate competence in reading, in written expression, and in mathematics.
- A definition of “college work” that provides that courses acceptable toward the degree include those that have been properly approved pursuant to Title 5 Section 55002(a), or, if completed at other than a California community college, would reasonably be expected to meet the standards of that section.
- The general education requirements must include a minimum of work in the natural sciences, the social and behavioral sciences, humanities, and language and rationality.

For the Bachelors in Science degree:

- See requirements outlined in AP 4025B Philosophy and Criteria for Baccalaureate Degree and General Education

For the Associates in Arts or Associates in Science degrees:

- The student must satisfactorily complete at least 60 semester units of college work.
- The work must include at least 18 semester units in general education and at least 18 semester units in a major listed in the Community Colleges “Taxonomy of Programs.”
- The work must include at least 12 semester units of study in residence.
- The students must successfully complete 3 units from the college-approved list of multicultural courses.

For Certificates:

- A minimum grade of "C" is required in each college credit course taken.
- The colleges grant certificates of achievement, certificates of proficiency, certificates of competency, and certificates of completion.
- A student must successfully complete a course of study or curriculum that consists of the required units designed to demonstrate that the student has completed coursework and developed capabilities relating to career or general education.
