BP 5200 Student Health Services

Reference(s):

Education Code Section 76401

Student Health Centers shall be operated to provide nursing, medical consultation, mental health services and accident insurance for injuries incurred on campus or at any scheduled college-related activity, to all college credit students in Rancho Santiago Community College District in accordance with prevailing law.

Financial support for such operation is derived from a mandatory health fee established by the State of California and approved by the Board of Trustees.

Revised: July 21, 2014 (Previously BP5510)
