Santa Ana College Holds Cable TV Auditions on September 1

(Santa Ana)— Auditions for Santa Ana College’s cable television news programs, Around and About Orange County (AAOC) and Noticiero Latino del Condado de Orange (NLCO), are scheduled for Tuesday, September 1, at 11:00 a.m. News, sports, and entertainment anchors and reporters are being sought. Interested parties must check in at the SAC-TV studios in the Digital Media Center, 1300 S. Bristol., Santa Ana.

No previous broadcasting experience is necessary to join the production staff of either program seen weekly on Time Warner Cable channels throughout Orange County and on YouTube.com. Individuals will be required to cold read a news script from a teleprompter while being taped on camera. Candidates need to be available Tuesdays and Thursdays from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. from September through December to produce the shows.

Talent auditioning for NLCO, the nation’s first Spanish-language college-produced news program in the U.S., must be fluent in English for training purposes. All cast members are required to enroll in SAC’s Television/Video Communications course 130: Principles of Broadcast News. These students will have the option of continuing with advanced courses and earning the program’s certificate.

AAOC is the oldest, continuous cable show in Orange County, now entering its 26th year while NLCO got its start in 1995. Alumni of the shows include comedian Will Ferrell, KCBS traffic anchor Vera Jimenez, KTLA-TV Morning News producer Laura Rodriguez, and TZM.com TV producer-reporter Dax Holt, who helped break the story of Michael Jackson’s death.
