

NEWS RELEASE

Contact: Judy Iannaccone
Director, Communications
Phone: (714) 480-7503
e-mail: iannaccone_judy@rscsd.edu

November 3, 2009
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Faculty and Friends Composer's Concert Slated for Santa Ana College on Nov. 7

WHAT Annual Faculty and Friends Composer's Concert
The Santa Ana College (SAC) Music Department hosts faculty members and friends in its annual "new music" concert. The event will feature contemporary art music, chamber music, and contemporary classical performances. Included in the evening's offerings will be art songs featuring lyrics based on poetry by ee cummings and Rainer Maria Rilke, as well as teachings of the Dalai Lama. The concert includes orchestrations with violin, cello, harp, percussion, and guitar.

WHERE Santa Ana College
1530 W. 17th St., Santa Ana, California 92706
Art Building, C-104

WHEN Saturday, November 7
8:00 p.m.

WHO This following performers will be featured:

- SAC faculty members Jeff Jones, Brian Kehlenbach, and Lou Warde
- Guest composer Ken Walicki
- Melody Versoza, soprano
- The Santa Ana New Music Ensemble especially assembled for this event
- The Divan Consort including SAC adjunct faculty member Fureya Unal

WHY Santa Ana College offers music training for experienced musicians and beginners. Classes are scheduled for day and evening students. Beginning music students have a choice of various keyboard, voice, and instrumental classes. For students seriously committed to the program, lessons are available for those who qualify by audition. A student can study classical, contemporary pop or jazz.

HOW General admission is $8; students/staff/seniors are $6. For information, contact (714) 564-5661 or by visiting

###