

NEWS RELEASE

Contact: Judy Iannaccone
Director, Communications
Phone: (714) 480-7503
e-mail: iannaccone_judy@rsccd.edu

April 19, 2010
MEDIA ALERT

Santa Ana College Hosts Student Leadership Institute April 23-24

WHAT The Student Leadership Institute (SLI) is a joint program of Santa Ana College and California State University, Fullerton (CSUF). The program consists of a series of workshops in leadership skill development. These workshops help students improve their leadership competencies, as well as enhance future leadership potential.

SLI is non-credit, certificate-bearing leadership program that consists of nine one-and two-hour workshops offered during a weekend seminar. After completing the 14-hour program, students will be invited to a banquet on May 12 at CSUF where they will be recognized and receive a certificate.

Topics covered include: communications skills, the diverse community, introduction to leadership and leadership styles, public speaking, marketing your leadership abilities, time management, creating networks, ethical decision-making, and teamwork.

WHERE Santa Ana College: R128 (Friday seminars) and R124 (Saturday seminars)
1530 W. 17th St., Santa Ana, CA 92706

WHEN Friday, April 23 and Saturday, April 24
8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

WHO 70 Santa Ana College students have been selected as participants.

Workshop presenters include:

- Rancho Santiago Community College District (RSCCD) Chancellor Edward Hernandez, Jr., Ed.D., Introduction to Leadership/Leadership Styles
- Tom Serafin, Santa Ana Police Department, Creating Networks
- Roman Reyna, Santa Ana Unified School District Board Member, Teamwork and Collaboration

WHY The SLI helps students acquire solid leadership skills and benefit from experienced professionals and community leaders who take the time to share their expertise and real-world experiences.

HOW For more information, contact Daniel Marquez at (714) 564-6214.

###