Orange County SBDC Expands Services to North Orange County SBDC Opens Satellite Office in Brea Chamber of Commerce

(Santa Ana)—The Orange County SBDC was recently awarded $235,000 from the Small Business Jobs Act of 2010 through the U.S. Small Business Administration via California State University, Fullerton. The new law is providing critical resources to help small businesses continue to drive economic recovery and create jobs. In Orange County, the two-year supplemental funding will support the opening of an SBDC satellite office in North Orange County.

Through a partnership with the Brea Chamber of Commerce and the Orange County SBDC, one-on-one, confidential business consulting will be available at no cost for North County business community. The SBDC satellite is located in the Brea Chamber of Commerce facility at 1 Civic Center Circle, Brea, CA 92821. Services are available to existing small business owners 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Mondays through Fridays by appointment.

“We are excited to be able to respond to the needs of the business community by opening a new service location in the heart of North Orange County,” said Leila Mozaffari, director, Orange County SBDC.

JJ Richa, Brea’s on-site Orange County SBDC business consultant, will provide financial and management consulting, as well as sales and market diversification strategy. With more than 20 years of experience, Richa is a serial entrepreneur who has successfully launched and grown several companies. His diverse background and qualifications enable him to help businesses reach their goals, avoid pitfalls, and improve their chances for success. Richa brings a wealth of knowledge and business expertise to help clients start, grow, finance, manage, operate, plan and sell their business.

The North County satellite SBDC office will serve approximately 100 businesses annually. To schedule an appointment for consulting services, call (657) 859-9722.
