Santa Ana College Holds Cable TV Auditions on August 23

(Santa Ana)— Auditions for Santa Ana College’s cable television news programs, Around and About Orange County (AAOC) and Noticiero Latino del Condado de Orange (NLCO), are scheduled for Tuesday, August 23, at 11:00 a.m. News, sports, and entertainment anchors and reporters are being sought. Auditions will be held at the SAC-TV studios located in the Digital Media Center, 1300 S. Bristol., Room 103, Santa Ana.

No previous broadcasting experience is necessary to try out for the behind-the-scenes crew or on-camera talent seen weekly on Time Warner Cable channels throughout Orange County and on Facebook. Candidates need to be available Tuesdays and Thursdays from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. from September through December when the shows are produced.

All cast members are required to enroll in SAC’s Television/Video Communications course 130: Principles of Broadcast News. These students will have the option of continuing with advanced courses and earning the program’s certificate.

In its 28th year, AAOC is the oldest, continuous running cable show in Orange County. More than 400 alumni have found full-time employment in media-related fields. Among them are Tony Cao, a producer of Vietonair.com who and has also been a cameraperson for Little Saigon TV, along with Hai Doh, cameraperson, and Tawny Hoang, reporter, for Little Saigon TV. Alumni also include Joe Rodriguez, producer of international soccer for Fox Sports, Eliana Moreno, helicopter reporter for KTLA-TV, and Will Ferrell. Most recently, former AAOC producer David Esch landed a job as producer/reporter at WVII-TV, the ABC affiliate in Bangor, Maine.
