State Budget Status
State Budget Status

- State Budget Overview
  - Reviewed at August BOT meeting
- Good news for a change…however still funding concerns
- Redevelopment Agency (RDA) Revenue dispute
  - $80 million actual discrepancy with DOF estimates
    - Tax increment residual revenues (ongoing)
    - Asset liquidation revenues (one time)
  - Guaranteed backfill?
  - Hold Harmless language in Budget Act?
  - Attempts to resolve discrepancy
  - DOF feels there is no discrepancy, however, willing to listen
    - RSCCD = $2 million shortfall for 12/13
      - Current year shortfall unknown
      - Most likely similar amount
- Structural system wide apportionment deficits
  - $40 to $50 million statewide structural deficits
    - RSCCD = $1 million to $1.3 million
State Budget Status

- Prop 30 Education Protection Account (EPA)
  - Approximately $9 million shortfall in 12/13 compared to DOF estimates
  - Guaranteed backfill?
    - RSCCD = $235,000 shortfall in 12/13
      - Current year shortfall unknown
- New Money in Budget Act for COLA and growth
  - However, partially offset with funding discrepancies and structural apportionment deficits
- Faculty Obligation Number (FON) concerns
  - Expect FON not to be waived by BOG this fall
  - Need to hire approximately 24 new full time faculty for fall 2014-2015
- 50% Law Compliance concerns
  - Adopted Budget 50% Law calculation not in compliance at 46.42%
  - Will need to make spending adjustments to bring into compliance
- However, in spite of all of these, the economy and Prop 98 funding outlook appears more promising

What’s Next?
What’s Next?

- Will there be additional Prop 98 revenues in 13/14?
- RDA funding issues resolved?
- EPA funding issues resolved?
- System wide structural deficit resolved?
- Closely monitor 50% Law compliance
- Improving economy and tax revenues will hopefully transpire into improved real funding for the community colleges
