Erika, here are the W9s and some additional information. The $43k is actually part of the $310k check so our 2 checks equal the amount of the deposit. Please let me know if anything more is needed to cut these two checks, hopefully by the end of the week. Thank you.

Subject: RE: Hernandez v. Rancho Santiago CCD

Here are the figures from Jeff:

Richard,

This will confirm our telephone conversation of this afternoon. I spoke with Plaintiff's counsel and we have agreed that plaintiff's portion of the judgment is $831,670. This represents the damages awarded by the Court plus 10% statutory interest from the date of entry of judgment. Plaintiff's attorney's portion is $301,211 which represents the attorneys' fees awarded by the trial court ($226,170) plus 10% statutory interest ($258,211) plus and additional $43,000 for attorneys' fees in connection with the appeal. Plaintiff has agreed to not file his motion seeking additional attorneys' fees in the amount of $48,211 and $1,704 in costs and will provide us with a satisfaction of judgment upon payment of the two amounts to him and his client. The total that needs to be listed on the Request for Release/Disbursement of Funds form is $1,132,881. Don and/or Alistair, I would ask that you complete that form and email it back to Richard as soon as possible so that we can expedite the resolution of this before plaintiff's counsel asks for more interest. To that end Richard, pursuant to our conversation this afternoon, I am going to confirm this Agreement in writing with plaintiff's attorney this afternoon.

Don, I see the check you brought me to any only includes the first two items, not the $43,000. Were we being reimbursed for that amount as well? Also, in order to get checks cut we will need the W-9s. Was our attorney following up to get those to us? Thank you.

Don,

Per our telephone discussion a moment ago, attached are the confirmation letters regarding final numbers for resolution on the Hernandez v. Rancho Santiago matter. Note that plaintiff attorney Scuderi signed off on the Jeff Thompson letter, and that stays the amount at a solid point without incurring any additional interest.

In addition to our telephone discussion, Rancho Santiago CCD will be issuing the settlement check to plaintiff and her attorney, respectively. In that regard, both plaintiff and her attorney will need to provide W-9s, respectively. Jeff, can you get those from Scuderi? The W-9s will cause the District to generate 1099s for each, and that will make their settlement funds taxable. Note the following:

When you are asked to fill out a W-9 form, at some point in the future you may receive a 1099 tax form from the person or business that pays you. This is similar to an employee's W-2 form, but is much simpler since it only reports your gross payments.

This 1099 is important for filling out your tax return at the end of the year. You must include all amounts reported on 1099 forms in your gross income since it is fully taxable just like an employee's wages. If you fail to report any of this income and pay tax on it, you may be subject to a number of penalties that will increase the amount you owe.

So, going forward, here is the plan:

- 1. ASCIP will issue the funds from the RMDF to Rancho Santiago Community College District
- 2. The RMDF check will be sent to Don Maus at Rancho Santiago CCD for processing.
- 3. Rancho Santiago will then issue the settlement funds as outlined in the Jeff Thompson communication

$831,670 - to plaintiff

$301,211 - to plaintiff attorney for fees awarded by the trial court plus statutory interest

 $$43,000\,$  - to plaintiff attorney for attorney's fees in connection with the appeal

Total amount of funding: $1,132,881

Jeff - please provide payee instructions to Don Maus for each of the 3 checks

- 4. ASCIP will issue a separate check payable to Rancho Santiago Community College District for $125,000.
- 5. Jeff Thompson will secure and provide the Satisfaction of Judgement and provide copies to both ASCIP and Rancho Santiago CCD.

I think this about pretty much solidifies the handling, and then at some point we can all close our files on this matter.

Thank you,
