1. Participatory Governance Items

Chancellor Rodríguez reported that draft documents are being circulated throughout the district relating to a revision of the district’s planning process. Dr. Rodríguez stated that at the recent ACCJC meeting which he attended, it was very clear our district needed to achieve sustainable continuous improvement. Most colleges are being placed on sanction because of their planning processes. It is important that a system of evaluation and assessment be in place throughout the district. The goal is to have a revised process in place by fall 2012 so that a cycle of assessment can take place before the colleges write their self-study for reaffirmation of accreditation.
