(Santa Ana)— Auditions for Santa Ana College’s cable television news programs, Around and About Orange County (AAOC) and Noticiero Latino del Condado de Orange (NLCO), are scheduled for Tuesday, August 24, at 11:00 a.m. News, sports, and entertainment anchors and reporters are being sought. Auditions will be held at the SAC-TV studios located in the Digital Media Center, 1300 S. Bristol., Room 103, Santa Ana.

No previous broadcasting experience is necessary to join the production staff of either program seen weekly on Time Warner Cable channels throughout Orange County and on YouTube.com. Individuals will be asked to cold read a news script from a teleprompter while being taped on camera. Candidates must be available Tuesdays and Thursdays from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. from September through December when the shows are produced.

Talent auditioning for NLCO, the nation’s first Spanish-language college-produced news program in the U.S., must be fluent in English for training purposes. All cast members are required to enroll in SAC’s Television/Video Communications course 130: Principles of Broadcast News. These students will have the option of continuing with advanced courses and earning the program’s certificate.

AAOC is the oldest, continuous cable show in Orange County, now entering its 27th year, while NLCO got its start in 1995. Hundreds of the program’s alumni have found full-time employment in various facets of the television and film industries. They include comedian Will Ferrell, KTLA 's weather and traffic reporter Vera Jimenez, KTLA-TV Morning News producer Laura Rodriguez, and TMZ.com TV producer-reporter Dax Holt.
