RSCCD: A MESSAGE OF
COMMITMENT AND SUPPORT FROM THE CHANCELLOR

- Our campuses are, and always will be, places where every member of our community can feel valued, supported, and safe. Please rest assured that RSCCD is committed to maintaining our campuses as safe spaces for all staff and students. No matter our challenges, we will continue to foster an environment where every individual is welcomed and respected.
- Our commitment to these principles is unwavering. We stand firmly behind our students, staff, and faculty, offering steadfast support for those who may feel particularly vulnerable during this time.

WHAT HAPPENED
DURING PRESIDENT
TRUMP'S FIRST
ADMINISTRATION?

Attempt to end TPS

Attempt to end DACA

Increase in arrests by ICE

Muslim Ban 3.0

Change in Enforcement Priority

Use of the "Bully Pulpit" to Achieve Policy Goals

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN FOR 2025?

- Can expect Administration to expand on what was done in prior term. The plan seems to be more organized.
- Project 2025 and early selection of some advisors may provide insight
- DACA protected by Biden. What can Trump do? What can you tell students?
- Rhetoric that may create fear, anger, or agreement in the community. Will that mean less students at school?

WHAT COULD THIS MEAN FOR STUDENTS?

- Students (or their parents) may be scared and stay away from school.
- Students or student family and community members may be facing immigration enforcement
- Campus colleagues may be facing their own immigration issues, have DACA, or have family and community members at risk of deportation.
- Immigration enforcement may take place adjacent to a campus
- Immigration enforcement may take place ON a campus
- Faculty, colleagues and students will disagree about immigration enforcement policies of the incoming administration.

- If you are at risk, attend a Know Your Rights training. Practice what you learn.
- Stay calm
- Keep your door closed
- Ask for a search warrant and check it for accuracy and proper signatures.
- Exercise your right to remain silent
- Don't lie
- Don't resist if they enter your home
- Record the incident if you can or have other record
- Don't sign anything before talking to an attorney, especially if you are detained

What ICE Can Do and Where they Go Will Depend on A Few Factors.

Where at School?	Description
Public Access/Common Spaces	Spaces that are open to the general public; entry is not restricted or limited. Examples include: Libraries, Common Areas, unrestricted access buildings, streets etc.
Restricted Access/Offices	Spaces that require a key card, locked doors or monitored entryways, including University housing and restricted lab areas.
Limited Access (Know: Quick Copy is Limited Access. Storage spaces, IT, etc., are all locked and access is limited.)	Spaces that are normally not left unlocked during the workday, including, for example, administrative or faculty offices, classrooms while classes are in session, locker rooms, research laboratories, kitchens and food preparation areas, maintenance areas, storage facilities, and physical plant operations. These spaces require a warrant to enter, if requested by the person in charge of the room. i.e. the teacher.

SPACES ON CAMPUS WHERE ICE NEEDS A WARRANT TO ENTER:

- SAC: Quick Copy (inside), Health Center, Faculty and Administrative Offices, Locked Rooms where there is No Public Access. Library spaces.
- SCE: Same
- Faculty/Classified/Admin, this is what a valid warrant looks like--->
- Don't open the door. Delay and Contact Campus Security/President/Chancellor's office immediately! Video everything and get names of officers, photo of warrant, and students full name. Advise student not to sign anything before meeting with an attorney.
- If ICE enters regardless, step aside. Collect names and information. Video if possible and state that you do not consent to entry.

ATTORNEYS
GENERAL GUIDANCE,
“PROMOTING A SAFE
AND SECURE CAMPUS
FOR ALL,” NOVEMBER
2024

When we have ICE interaction in a limited access or restricted place, ask for a signed judicial warrant and review that warrant. Immediately contact Safety and Security and ask them to contact the Presidents or Chancellor Office for assistance. If ICE gains access, do not resist, but make a record.

When making record of the contact with an immigration enforcement officer, the following information is useful:

- ✓ Name of the officer, and, if available, the officer’s credentials and contact information;
- ✓ Identity of all school personnel who communicated with the officer;
- ✓ Details of the officer’s request;
- ✓ Whether the officer presented a warrant, subpoena, or court order to accompany his/ her request, what was requested in the warrant/subpoena/court order, and whether the warrant/subpoena/court order was signed by a judge;
- ✓ Any response to the officer’s request;
- ✓ Any further action taken by the immigration officer; and
- ✓ Photo or copy of any documents presented by the agent.

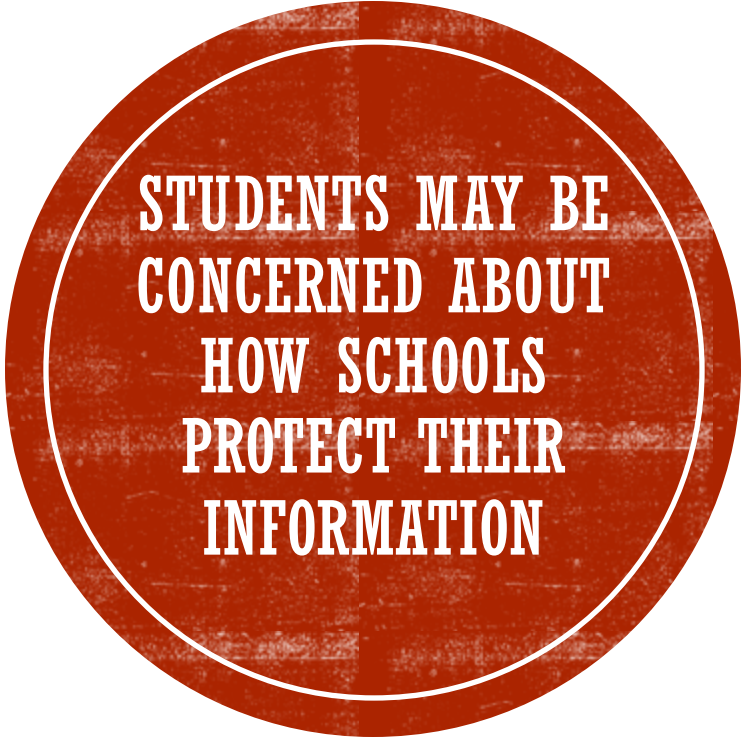

ICE WAITING OUTSIDE OF THE SCHOOL

- We Should All Immediately Call the OC Rapid Response Network at (714) 881-1558. They will put out a notification.
- If you are at risk, follow <https://www.instagram.com/ocrrn> for updates about ICE in Orange County, CA.
- If you are at risk for deportation, avoid interaction with ICE and local law enforcement by not attracting attention. Drive the speed limit and in vehicles that have operational brake and headlights, and are free of overly-tinted windows or other easy "pretext violations" for making a stop.

HOW SCHOOLS
PROTECT THEIR INFORMATION

Written consent by the student is generally required before disclosure is allowed.

There are limited exceptions for judicial warrants, a court order, or judicial subpoena.

AT WORK — RSCCD IS YOUR PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT

- If you are at risk, attend a Know Your Rights training
- You don't have the same privacy expectation as you do at your home
- Stay calm
- Don't lie
- Exercise your right to remain silent
- Don't sign anything

THE BASICS, NO MATTER WHERE YOU ARE:

- Stay calm. Agree with coworkers in advance that running only attracts attention and gives ICE permission to pursue. Think ahead about where you might find a safe space to wait until you are able to calmly walk away.
- Continue what you are doing and if it is possible, be discrete and go to a room where the public is not allowed. Consider ask the person in charge of the room if they will protect you and if they understand they are not required to allow ICE into the space without a federal warrant signed by a judge. The warrant should specify the place to be searched, who is being looked for, and the warrant must be current so check the date.
- Do not provide false documents and do not carry documents that would identify you as an unlawful immigrant to the US. You have a right to remain silent.
- Do not sign anything before consulting with an attorney. Tell ICE repeatedly that you would like to speak with your attorney if you are detained. You should have an opportunity to a phone call. Memorize your attorney phone number in advance.

Don't take chances with your legal needs.

Request a referral on-line or call us at (949) 440-6747 or (877) 257-4762.

The OCBA's Lawyer Referral & Information Service (LRIS) is the only non-profit legal referral service in Orange County sponsored by the OCBA. It has been referring callers to some of Orange County's finest attorneys for over 50 years. LRIS panel attorneys have expertise in 35 areas of the law. Each call is carefully screened by trained representatives to assure referral to the right attorney. Prospective clients receive a free brief consultation to review the legal issue and discuss fees.

You should consult with several attorneys to determine who suits your needs and who you can afford. You should demand a written fee agreement (sometimes called a "retainer") and be able to contact your attorney and receive calls back from them when necessary. If you are detained, DO NOT sign anything without attorney advice.

DON'T FALL VICTIM TO A SCAM

PRACTICE SELF-CARE

At the end of the day you need to get on with life, enjoy your family, and be part of the community. Don't lose sight of that. Look for ways to care for yourself and live in joy and love. You probably deserve it.

Allies and educators should look for how they can contribute to others well-being as this possibly traumatic event unfolds.

QUESTION &
ANSWER: @HOME

- Q: Can you just keep the door closed? A: YES, you can keep the door closed. If the agents show you a warrant that is not valid, assert your rights. Tell them this is not a valid warrant that gives them a right to enter your home. Say, I am not giving you permission or consenting for you to enter my home.
- Q: What if agents refuse to show you the warrant? A: You need to verbalize and express that you do not consent to the entry into your home and that they should leave. You should not open or slightly crack the door to talk to them. They could be aggressive at times and walk in if the door is open.
- Q: Do immigration agents ever mislead you to get inside the home? A: Yes
- Q: What if someone else in your family opens the door unknowingly? A: If someone opens the door or gives them consent to enter your home, officers can search for the person on that warrant and detained that person. If this happens, you should not answer questions or speak to the officers while they are in your house conducting their search. Stand silently and observe what they do, where they go, and what they take. Write down everything you observed as soon as you can.

QUESTION &
ANSWER:

- Q: Should we run? A: Everyone in the home should remain calm and not resist arrest. You should record and take pictures of what is happening. You or your family member can still assert your right and ask to see the warrant. You can still try to verbalize that you don't consent to their entry into your home but it will not likely do anything at this point.
- Q: Is this a good time to confess? A: You have the right to, and you should, remain silent. You should not discuss your immigration or citizenship status with police, immigration agents, or other officials. Anything you tell an officer can later be used against you in immigration court.
- Q: What if I am asked for my papers? A: If you are not a U.S. citizen and an immigration agent requests your immigration papers, you must show them if you have them with you. If asked this by your school, let the president or chancellor's office know, as "papers" are not required to attend school.
- Q: Can you be searched? A: If an immigration agent asks if they can search you, you have the right to say no. Agents do not have the right to search you or your belongings without your consent or probable cause. Don't fight or resist the officer if they proceed against your will, simply state your position clearly.
- Q: I have a green card. Am I at risk? A: If you're over 18, carry your papers with you at all times. If you don't have them, tell the officer that you want to remain silent, or that you want to consult a lawyer before answering any questions.
