

Government and Law Beginning High Handout #1 Intonation

Direction: Mark the intonation with arrows in the parentheses. Use ↗ for rising, ↘ for falling. Put an arrow for all of these sentences.

- It was raining, () so he turned on his windshield wipers. ()
- He didn't have his proof of insurance, () but he had his license and registration. ()
- Did you remember to put gas in the car? ()
- You can use your turn signals, () or you can use hand signals. ()
- Which road should we take, () Pacific Coast Highway or 405? ()
- They will check the engine oil, () as soon as they find a gas station. ()

Government and Law Beginning High Handout #1 Intonation KEY

Direction: Mark the intonation with arrows in the parentheses. Use ↗ for rising, ↘ for falling. Put an arrow for all of these sentences.

- It was raining, (↗) so he turned on his windshield wipers. (↘)
- He didn't have his proof of insurance, (↗) but he had his license and registration. (↘)
- Did you remember to put gas in the car? (↘)
- You can use your turn signals, (↗) or you can use hand signals. (↘)
- Which road should we take, (↗) Pacific Coast Highway or 405? (↘)
- They will check the engine oil, (↗) as soon as they find a gas station. (↘)