

ESL Enhanced Writing Capstone

Award Type Certificate of Competency (Noncredit)

Description

Description

The combination of courses in this program is designed to help students develop their paragraph and essay writing skills and abilities in English and use the proper mechanics of writing (e.g., grammar, word usage, spelling, punctuation, capitalization) as they work on increasing their writing fluency.

Program Learning Outcomes

1. Outcome

Students will be able to write paragraphs and essays for classes in other programs, at their workplace, at home, or for the community-at-large.

Degree Requirements

To obtain this certificate, students must pass three courses:

ESL 488	Basic Writing(Active)	Credits 0
ESL 489	Intermediate Writing(Active)	0
ESL 490	Intermediate Writing and Grammar(Active)	0
ESL 491	Advanced Grammar Review and Essay Writing(Active)	0
		Total: 0

Approval Dates

CIC Approval Date: 09/19/2022