

Football

What is football?

Football is the most popular sport in the United States. It is a team sport played with a ball. In the United States, people call American football football. The sport where people mostly use their feet to kick a ball is called soccer.

Football fans

- Football fans are people who love football.
- They usually have a favorite team.
- When major football games are shown on TV, fans have a party and watch the game together.
- They eat snacks and cheer for their favorite football team.
- Some fans bet money on which team will win the game.
- Some football fans attend games in person.
- During football season, fans wear T-shirts and hats with their team's colors and logo.

The Super Bowl

- The Super Bowl is a special football game played every year at the end of the NFL season.
- For most football fans, it is a very special event.
- People who do not like football still watch it for the commercials and the half-time show.

What about you?

Do you watch football on TV?
Do you ever play football?
Are you going to watch the Super Bowl this year?

Do you know:

who is playing in the Super Bowl this year?
where the Super Bowl game is this year?
who the halftime performers are?	