Task 5 Assessment (18 points possible)

Directions: Read the scenario, then write an email persuading your friend to follow safe driving practices.

Be sure to include:

- what the problem is
- 2 reasons/laws to persuade her to change
- the 2 email addresses, a subject, a greeting, a closing, and contact information

Scenario: Your friend Susana often eats or drinks while driving. She says she has a busy life, and it's easier to eat and drink in the car.

Your email: student88@gmail.com

Susana's email: susanaruiz@yahoo.com

Graders/instructors: grade email based on the rubric and the scenario above (students should use the scenario and include the items listed above). A sample email is below.

Email
From: student88@gmail.com (no problem if they use their own email)
To: susanaruiz@yahoo.com
Subject: eating and driving (or anything that describes the problem)
Dear Susana, I'm worried about you eating and drinking while driving. This is dangerous. This is distracted driving; you are not paying attention and could have an accident or get a ticket. Also, you do not have 2 hands on the wheel and can't react quickly. It only takes a second for an accident to happen. Your family and friends want you to be safe. Please think about this. Sincerely, John 714-555-8997
