“Summer” (2014)

Calvin Harris

When I met you in the <input type="text"/>
To my heartbeat sound
We fell in <input type="text"/>
As the <input type="text"/> turn brown
And we could be together baby
As long as skies are <input type="text"/>
You act so innocent now
But you <input type="text"/> so soon
When I met you in the summer
When I <input type="text"/> you in the summer
To my heartbeat <input type="text"/>
We fell in love
As the leaves turn <input type="text"/>
And we could be together <input type="text"/>
As long as <input type="text"/> are blue
You act so innocent now
But you <input type="text"/> so soon
When I met you in the summer
