CHIEF JOB STEWARD'S REPORT

Sarah mentioned that two possible grievance issues are under investigation. Dolly mentioned that representatives from both CSEA and Human Resources Office meet every month at EERC (Employer-Employee Relations Committee) to address issues before they become a bigger issue or problem. She also expressed appreciation to Job Steward Leslie Wood-Rogers who successfully represented a member on an Article 14 issue.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

- Shared Governance – Sarah reported that information was sent to invite classified employees to become representatives for shared governance committees with vacant classified seats at SAC, SCC and DO. Those interested can contact her or any EBoard member.

NEW BUSINESS

- Members from one campus department have expressed concern and frustration over the increasing amount of workload without corresponding increase in staffing. Work has become more demanding and stressful due to on-going construction at campus and the Centennial celebration. This issue was noted for further review and discussion.

GOOD OF THE ORDER

Three door prizes were raffled off to attendees.

Meeting was adjourned at 1:10 pm.
