HUMAN RESOURCE

Each time a department wants to alter its agreed upon equivalencies for all discipline hirings, it must file a new "Request for Equivalencies to Minimum Qualifications" form.

Name of the Discipline: Child Development

1) List the current Minimum Qualifications for the discipline:

Master's in child development, early childhood education, human development, home economics/family and consumer studies with a specialization in child development/early childhood education, or educational psychology with a specialization in child development/early childhood education

bachelor's in any of the above

AND

master's in social work, educational supervision, elementary education, special education, psychology, bilingual/bicultural education, life management/home economics, family life studies, or family and consumer studies

the equivalent.

2) List the equivalencies that the Department accepts as valid:

The above OR a master's/doctorate in education, educational leadership, psychology or sociology with

(1) at least 15 graduate units in child development/early childhood education or

(2) 5 years experience in the Early Childhood Education field (1/20011)

OR

master's/doctorate in counseling with a concentration in marriage, family and child counseling/therapy

master's/doctorate in family life studies, life management, or family and consumer studies.

3) Rationale:

This is a field that covers many specialties within it. Specific classes require expertise often found in the education and experiential breadth described above in the multidimensional patterns seen in graduate work today. These combinations are being seen more frequently as the field becomes more specific within these specialties.
