Request for Specific Equivalencies to Minimum Qualification for a Discipline/Program

FORM I

Each time a department wants to alter its agreed upon equivalencies for all discipline hirings, it must file a new "Request for Equivalencies to Minimum Qualifications" form.

Name of the Discipline: Nutritional Science/Dietetics

1) List the current Minimum Qualifications for the discipline:

Master's degree in nutrition, dietetics, or dietetics and food administration OR bachelor's degree in any of the above AND master's degree in chemistry, public health, or family and consumer studies/home economics OR the equivalent.

(Note: A bachelor's degree in nutrition, dietetics, or dietetics and food administration, and certification as a registered dietitian, is an alternative qualification for this discipline.)

2) List the equivalencies that the Department accepts as valid:

Master's degree in one of the following areas: nutrition, dietetics, nutrition and dietetics, dietetics and food administration, foods and nutrition, nutritional science, culinary nutrition, food science, food science and technology, food engineering, food industry management, hotel and food service management, culinary management, culinary arts management, culinary science, baking and pastry arts, culinary arts and food service management, baking and pastry arts management, baking and pastry arts and food service management, food service entrepreneurship, hospitality management, hotel and restaurant management, family and consumer studies/home economics, public health, chemistry, biochemistry, or biotechnology AND

Bachelor's degree in any of the above AND

Five or more years of professional experience in culinary arts or a culinary arts related field

3) Rationale:

The above degrees' focus provides academic and practical competency in all areas covered in the nutrition, culinary arts, and hospitality classes. Students can benefit greatly from this real-world knowledge of technical skills and industry standards learned from professional experience. Professional experience in the culinary arts field can enrich the nutrition, culinary arts, and hospitality instructional programs and prepare students to complete and to be successful in these fields.
